

Employee Benefits Guide

Company: Northstar Technologies (fictional)

1. Health Benefits

Eligible full-time employees may enroll in the company's health benefits program.

New employees may enroll during their initial benefits enrollment period.

Employees should review the available plan information before selecting coverage.

2. Enrollment Period

New employees must complete benefits enrollment within 30 days of their start date.

Employees who do not complete enrollment during the initial period may need to wait for the annual enrollment period unless a qualifying life event applies.

3. Dependents

Eligible employees may add qualifying dependents to plans that permit dependent coverage.

Employees must provide the required dependent information during enrollment.

4. Benefits Questions

Employees can contact HR for help understanding enrollment deadlines, plan options, and eligibility.

Benefit plan details may change, so employees should use the current information provided by HR.

Document purpose: This fictional policy is intentionally simple and structured for testing an employee-onboarding RAG application.
