Document notice: This policy is fictional and was created for retrieval-augmented generation testing. It is not legal, tax, medical, or employment advice.

1. Purpose and Scope

This policy explains monthly pay dates, payroll cutoffs, time approval, bank changes, payslips, corrections, and final-pay coordination. It should be read with compensation and expense policies because those items follow different approval and payment rules.

This policy applies across company offices and approved remote locations unless a local addendum or controlling law provides a different rule. Employees should use the current policy version and ask the listed owner when facts do not fit the standard case.

2. Summary of Key Rules

Item	Normal cutoff	Normal payment
Base salary	Active employment record	Last working day of month
Time and overtime	20th at 5:00 p.m. local time	Current month if approved
Bank change	20th at 5:00 p.m. local time	Current month if validated
Expense reimbursement	See Expense Policy	Separate payment run

3. Pay Date and Holiday Rule

Employees are paid on the last working day of each month. When that day is a company holiday or banking closure, payment is made on the preceding working day. Bank posting times vary, so an employee should first confirm that the expected pay date has passed before reporting a missing deposit.

4. Time, Overtime, and Manager Approval

Employees must submit required time records by the published cutoff. Managers should approve or return records by noon on the next working day. Late approved overtime normally moves to the following pay cycle. Payroll may process a reasonable estimate where legally required and reconcile it after the actual record is approved.

5. Bank Details and Payslips

Employees enter bank information through the secure HR portal and are responsible for accuracy. Payroll never accepts bank changes by ordinary email. Electronic payslips are available after processing and show gross pay, deductions, taxes, and net pay. Suspected unauthorized bank changes must be reported to Payroll and Information Security immediately.

6. Corrections and Overpayments

Employees should report a suspected error within ten working days of receiving the payslip. Payroll investigates and explains the correction schedule. Material underpayments are prioritized for an off-cycle payment when legally required or when waiting would create hardship. Overpayments remain company funds and are recovered through a written, lawful repayment arrangement.

7. Exceptions, Records, and Questions

Exceptions must be lawful, documented, limited in duration, and approved by the policy owner plus any other owner named in the relevant section. Approval for one case does not change the policy for other employees. Records are retained according to the company retention schedule and any legal hold.
