Document notice: This policy is fictional and was created for retrieval-augmented generation testing. It is not legal, tax, medical, or employment advice.

1. Purpose and Scope

This policy establishes eligibility, approval, location, availability, equipment, security, and review requirements for recurring remote and hybrid arrangements. Occasional flexibility does not create an ongoing entitlement.

This policy applies across company offices and approved remote locations unless a local addendum or controlling law provides a different rule. Employees should use the current policy version and ask the listed owner when facts do not fit the standard case.

2. Summary of Key Rules

| Arrangement           | Normal frequency        | Required approval           | Review cycle   |
|-----------------------|-------------------------|-----------------------------|----------------|
| Occasional remote day | Up to 2 per month       | Manager                     | Per request    |
| Hybrid schedule       | Up to 2 days per week   | Manager and department head | Every 6 months |
| Primarily remote      | 3 or more days per week | Vice president, HR, Tax     | Every 6 months |

3. Eligibility and Approval

Employees who have completed 30 days of employment may request regular work from home. Eligibility does not guarantee approval. Managers consider role duties, performance, team coverage, customer needs, and information-security risk. Employees on a formal performance improvement plan are normally ineligible unless remote work is part of an approved accommodation.

4. Work Location and Changes

The approved agreement identifies the primary remote location. Working from another state, province, or country for more than ten business days requires advance review by People Operations, Tax, Legal, and Information Security. Employees must not assume that a travel approval also authorizes remote work. Permanent relocation requires a new agreement and may affect compensation or benefits.

5. Hours, Availability, and Meetings

Remote employees follow their assigned schedule and remain reachable during agreed working hours. Hybrid employees should attend designated in-person collaboration days unless excused. Core meeting hours are 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. in the team's primary time zone. Overtime-eligible employees must record all time and obtain approval before working overtime.

6. Equipment, Costs, and Security

The company provides role-required equipment under the Acceptable Use and Device Policy. Routine home internet and utility costs are not reimbursed unless required by law or an approved local addendum. Confidential work must be performed in a private setting using approved devices, multi-factor authentication, and the company VPN when required. Suspected loss or exposure must be reported immediately.

7. Exceptions, Records, and Questions

Exceptions must be lawful, documented, limited in duration, and approved by the policy owner plus any other owner named in the relevant section. Approval for one case does not change the policy for other employees. Records are retained according to the company retention schedule and any legal hold.
